

A background image showing a person with dark, wavy hair holding a tabby cat. The person is looking down at the cat, and the cat is looking towards the camera. The image is semi-transparent, allowing the text to be overlaid.

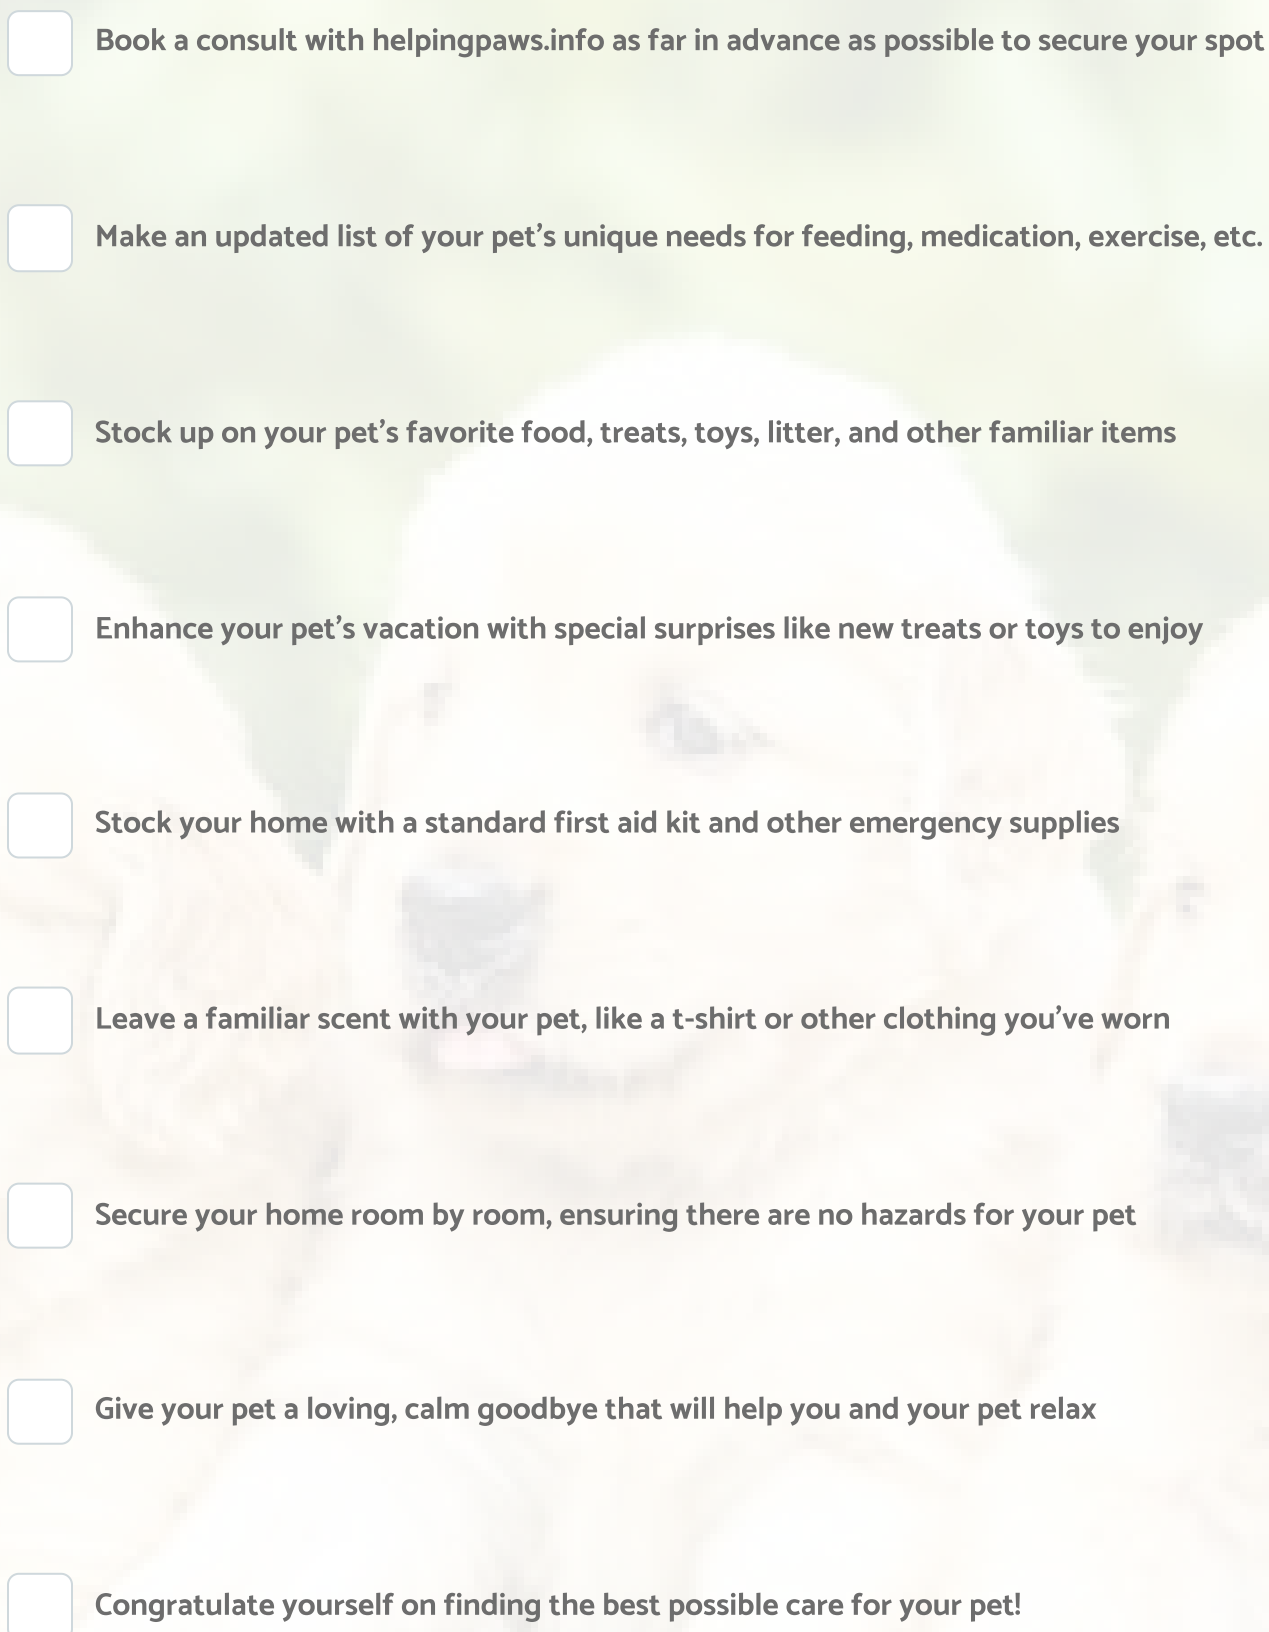

Checklist for Pet Parents for Going Out of Town

Karen Finkenauer, CVT
helpingpaws.info

As a pet parent, nothing is more important than the well-being of your furry family members. Whether you're leaving town for a few days or just heading to work, the thought of leaving your pets behind can be overwhelming. We all want to make sure our pets are happy, healthy, and very well taken care of. That's where I come in. Thank you for your trust.

Karen Finkenauer, CVT

-
- ☐ Book a consult with helpingpaws.info as far in advance as possible to secure your spot
 - ☐ Make an updated list of your pet's unique needs for feeding, medication, exercise, etc.
 - ☐ Stock up on your pet's favorite food, treats, toys, litter, and other familiar items
 - ☐ Enhance your pet's vacation with special surprises like new treats or toys to enjoy
 - ☐ Stock your home with a standard first aid kit and other emergency supplies
 - ☐ Leave a familiar scent with your pet, like a t-shirt or other clothing you've worn
 - ☐ Secure your home room by room, ensuring there are no hazards for your pet
 - ☐ Give your pet a loving, calm goodbye that will help you and your pet relax
 - ☐ Congratulate yourself on finding the best possible care for your pet!

Karen Finkenauer
helpingpaws.info

one last thing... have a great time!

(your pets definitely will, thanks to you!)

book meow →

Attract

Created with Growth Tools in Partnership with Leadpages