'What are you gonna do when you grow up?'

That may be the most aggravating question ever when you don't know the answer!

This simple checkbox activity will help you answer that question once and for all! Choose one of the options you are considering for your new career, degree or business and run it through this checklist.

1. Enter a score from 0 for 'NO!' to 10 for 'YES!' beside each of the 10 statements. Or whatever other score you choose for that comment.
2. Tally up your score.
3. I'll be back after you complete this activity to help you take your next steps.

What's your score?

If you scored 90 or higher you're probably ready to roll and may not need my help at all! Congratulations.

If you scored 89 or lower, then we need to talk.

There is a HIGH COST for not being totally clear about this. It costs money, time, opportunities and missed experiences with friends & family.

Let's jump on a free call for about 30 minutes and talk about what you think you'd like to do.
